

Interview skills needed

- Knowledge
- Understanding

Question 2

The chapter talks about interviews as a way of telling stories. How can you ask interview questions in a way that helps people share clear and detailed stories?

- Easy-to-answer questions simple
- Not having an overcomplicated question
- Short questions

Question 3

What should researchers think about when deciding whose story they can share and whether it is fair?

- Being mindful of how they identify
- Or relate to the information they are using

Question 4

The book explains how to make people feel comfortable in person

- It's not motivating
- You feel disconnected from people through a screen
- Uncomfortable
- You can't ask questions as if you were in the classroom

Question 5

- Have a plan outline of how you are going to talk during our interview when you shy.
- Doing interviews with our friends together
-