

Should the documents from the archives relating to slavery be on display? Why is it important?

Should the archives related to slavery at MOBOT be on display?

Audience: Surrounding neighborhood/ MOBOT visitors.

- 1) Have you ever been to the Missouri Botanical Garden?
 - a) Yes, 1-3 times
 - b) Yes, 4-6 times
 - c) Yes, 10+ times
 - d) No, 0 times.

- 2) Would you be interested in learning more about slavery at the botanical garden?

- 3) Would you like to have access to the archives related to slavery at MOBOT?

- 4) In your opinion, should the Missouri Botanical Garden actively promote awareness of its historical ties to slavery through exhibits and educational programs?
 - a) Strongly agree
 - b) Agree
 - c) Neutral
 - d) Disagree
 - e) Strongly disagree

- 5) How did you hear about Missouri Botanical Garden (MOBOT) ?
 - a) Friends
 - b) Family
 - c) Online ADS/ Research
 - d) Others

- 6) What do you find the most INTRIGUING about MOBOT ?
 - a) The Plants in the Garden
 - b) The outside atmosphere
 - c) The cultural history/ background
 - d) Others

- 7) How likely are you to tell others about the Botanical Garden?
 - a. Very likely
 - b. Somewhat likely
 - c. Somewhat unlikely

d. Very unlikely

8) If you were able to access the archives digitally, what would be the easiest way for you to get to it?

- a) QR code
- b) Kiosk
- c) Other, please state

9) If MOBOT's history of slavery was on display around the garden, would that deter you from coming to the garden, or would it encourage you? Why?

- a) Open-ended

11) If you go to the garden often, which of the following are you?

- a) A member of the garden
- b) Someone who likes to go sometimes
- c) Someone who barely goes
- d) I've never gone to the garden before

12) Are you aware that there was a history of slavery with MOBOT?

- a) Yes
- b) No

13) What is your proximity to the Botanical Garden?

- A) Within the Neighborhood
- B) Within the City
- C) Within the State
- D) Within the Country
- E) Outside the US