

Social Interactions at SIVE

MUC Interactions

Lunch time is the prime time to meet new people. With all the seating located in the MUC, it is relatively simple to sit and interact with other people.

Location

- The MUC is located in the center of campus which means a lot of foot traffic. Out of all spots on campus, it is the most central spot which can easily hold a lot of people allowing people to meet each other.

Opportunity

Waiting in food lines or waiting to pay for your food gives so many opportunities to spark up a conversation with either the person in front or behind you.

Lovejoy Library

- When comparing the MUC to someplace like the library, there are a few differences but these small changes make the biggest impact.

Comparisons

Libraries have a reputation as being a quiet space where people work independently, so normally in Lovejoy, people are sitting independently sitting one to a table to do their work, not to socialize.
