

Research questions:

How does the effect of SIUE not being able to control if the preacher can come on campus affect students' beliefs and views of people and places?

How do you feel when the preacher comes to talk on the squad?

Does the preacher change your views of people, places or even religious views?

How do you think the preacher affects others around you? When he comes, do you avoid walking in or around the area he is?

What do you think about people who respond to the preacher?

Do you feel SIUE should be able to control who is able to come on and/or speak on campus